Have you read Way Off Base?

“Wow!!”-Larry

“I can’t believe that I have been so immersed in this book that I didn’t even tell you I got it. IT IS FANTASTIC!” -Tracy

“I read it half way through before I put it down. Very well written!” - Marie

It is so exciting to read how the simple messages in my first book, Way Off Base, are impacting so many lives. Thank you to all of you who have taken the time to write. And for those of you who haven’t yet picked up a copy...now’s the time! Buy a copy today. Read it. Then give it to someone else. Or better yet, buy some more copies to hand out to your friends, your pastor or someone else who needs a little encouragement to get off base and back out onto the playground.

CrossHeirs Youth Hunts

Grant & Eric Guthrie

The 2009-2010 Duck season is now history but for several youngsters around the state the memories will last forever.

Colin & Bruce Trice

Many of the young men had never seen a duck, shot a gun or even been out in the woods. Some had never sat around a campfire and roasted hot dogs or eaten a s’more! But as you can see...that has now been remedied. Our youth hunts also got some good publicity from the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission when we appeared on Steve “Wildman” Wilson’s TV show, Talkin’ Outdoors at the Corner Café. We have a link to the show on the web site.

We hope to expand our youth hunts next year by partnering with a larger lodge and securing sponsorships to make sure more young men, and women, are able to enjoy God’s creation, positive mentoring...and S’mores!

Justin, Davon & Zach enjoy a S’more with their mentors David Bachman and Josh Dennis

2009 Annual Report Now Available

“There was a lot of uncertainty as we neared the end of the decade. We elected a new president, the economy suffered it’s worst slump in years and wars raged on overseas. But in retrospect it was a very good year for the ministries of Beautiful Feet.”

The 2009 Beautiful Feet Ministries Annual Report is now ready for download at the website or, for a small donation, we can mail one to your house. This is the same report that was presented to the board of directors at the annual bd. Meeting in January. This is also an excellent tool to give to someone who you think might be interested in knowing more about or even supporting Beautiful Feet Ministry.

It was a motivational January luncheon for the Little Rock Media Fellowship.

Dr. Barry Wingfield, pastor of Sherwood’s Cornerstone Bible Fellowship was our speaker. Barry challenged the media this year to DEW 60. That is, to set aside 60 minutes a week to focus on Diet, Exercise and Worship. If you do the math that only breaks down to less than 10 minutes a day each of reading God’s word, utilizing our gifts and glorifying God through prayer, meditation or song. That may not seem like much but it is a start. And if we seek to grow closer to God today than we were yesterday then tomorrow or next week or next year or five years on down the line we’ll be right where God wants us to be.

The February luncheon is set for the 18th and the speaker(s) will be Larry Payton, who is developing a stage play for The Shack. Larry will be joined by Kyle Rote, Jr., who some may remember as America’s first big Soccer star.

PLANNING STAGES Here are a few things we’re working on but don’t have firm dates just yet.

Spring: Hiking/Camping or 4-wheeler Weekends. We’re looking at late March, April and early May for these events.

Summer: A Small Ministries conference is being planned for early Summer though a firm date is yet to be set. This will be an excellent event to attend if you’ve launched or are thinking of launching a ministry.

Sporting Clay Tournament: We’re also looking at a summer date for a tournament/fundraiser.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR Here is a list of future events that DO have firm dates!
